New York University Abu Dhabi (NYUAD) invites applications for Assistant / Associate Instructor positions in the Physics Program. Instructors will support NYUAD’s educational mission by helping professors to instruct the foundational physics classes and science core.

Instructors are expected to teach recitations to small groups of students, to hold review sessions, to prepare and run demonstrations, to correct and grade homework and tests, and to assist with laboratory courses by preparing the equipment and assisting the students. They are also expected to hold office hours.

Individuals with a BS / BA or MS / MA degree in Physics are strongly encouraged to apply. Individuals with a higher degree may also be considered.

Appointments will be for up to three years with a 6 month probationary period and renewable upon a review 1 year before the end of the contract. Instructors are encouraged to join one of the NYUAD Physics research groups for professional development. For more details on the NYUAD Physics program, please visit http://nyuad.nyu.edu/en/academics/academic-divisions/science/physics.html

Salaries are extremely competitive with a generous benefits package including a housing allowance. Instructors will also be eligible for professional development opportunities such as attending scientific conferences.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, statements of teaching and research interests and two reference letters. Please visit our website at http://nyuad.nyu.edu/about/careers/faculty-positions.html for instructions on how to apply. Applications are open until January 15, 2015 and will begin to be reviewed in February 2015. If you have any questions, please e-mail nyuad.science@nyu.edu.
