New York University has established a campus in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates, and invites applications for several Assistant / Associate Instructor positions. We encourage applicants with experience in teaching, and in planning and conducting laboratory experiments in psychology, cognitive science, biology, or related fields. A masters or bachelors degree with experience in psychology, cognitive science, biology, or a related field is preferred. Individuals with a higher degree will also be considered.

Instructors will support NYU Abu Dhabi's educational mission by assisting faculty with courses in psychology. Instructors will teach discussion sections, hold review sessions, take part in departmental activities and responsibilities, and provide assistance with the preparation, development, instruction and assessment of laboratory courses. Appointments are for up to three years with the opportunity to renew. For more details on the NYUAD Psychology program, please visit http://nyuad.nyu.edu/en/academics/academic-divisions/science/psychology.html

Salaries are extremely competitive with a generous benefits package that includes a housing allowance. Assistant instructors will also be eligible for professional development opportunities such as attending scientific conferences.

Entering its fifth year, NYU Abu Dhabi has recruited a cohort of faculty who are at once distinguished in their research and teaching. Our students are drawn from around the world and surpass all traditional recruitment benchmarks, both US and global. NYU Abu Dhabi's highly selective liberal arts enterprise is complemented by an institute for advanced research, sponsoring cutting-edge projects across the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Engineering.

Applicants need to submit a curriculum vitae, a teaching statement, and contact information for three references. Please visit our website at http://nyuad.nyu.edu/about/careers/faculty-positions.html for instructions and other information on how to apply. Applications are open until January 15, 2015. If you have any questions, please e-mail nyuad.science@nyu.edu

NYU Abu Dhabi is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
