The above named student is applying for acceptance to the Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Scholars Program (SMSP) for the coming academic year. The SMSP is a specially designed program by New York University and New York University Abu Dhabi in conjunction with the Government of Abu Dhabi to offer exceptional university students in their third or fourth year of a bachelor’s program in one of the three national universities in the UAE, an outstanding academic, cross cultural and leadership development experience. The program offers the following opportunities and benefits:

- Special Academic Courses- interactive and intensive:
  - One half of the Scholars will take a course taught by NYU President John Sexton on the U.S. Supreme Court’s treatment of religion and government
  - The other half will take a course taught by noted journalist James Traub on U.S. Foreign Policy.

- A class entitled, “What Makes a Great Leader?”

- Public Speaking and Public Presentations class

- Critical Thinking and Persuasive Writing curriculum

- Cross-cultural experiences with students from throughout NYU’s Global Network University
Roundtable meetings with global leaders from around the world
Advice and counseling on graduate education options and admissions processes, and scholarship opportunities at NYU New York
9-day trip to U.S. (New York and Washington, D.C.) to meet noteworthy leaders and experience the intellectual and cultural riches of these cities.

Scholars will be expected to complete all their coursework, including extensive readings, regular essay assignments, class participation, and team projects. Overall, the work is demanding and rigorous.

Scholars should:

- Be top students with noted intellectual curiosity and a record of accomplishment;
- Possess excellent English language competency;
- Be self-aware;
- Have outstanding interpersonal skills and be able to contribute to the class;
- Be creative or have other special talents or gifts;
- Demonstrate leadership potential;
- Be enterprising and demonstrate a spirit of adventure and flexibility.
