Yaw Nyarko
New York University

Yaw Nyarko is Professor of Economics at NYU. Professor Nyarko, a Ghanaian national, is the founding director of Africa House at NYU and founding co-director of the Development Research Institute at NYU. His research interests include human capital theory, economic development, migration and brain drain studies and game theory. Professor Nyarko holds a PhD from Cornell University.