The Arts and Humanities Division at New York University Abu Dhabi seeks to appoint an Assistant Manager, Equipment Center and Instructor of the Arts for Camera & Lights. This is a full-time academic support position suited for someone eager to join the Arts' team within the Arts and Humanities Division. The Assistant Manager provides administrative support and technical knowledge for operations of the Equipment Center, which is the field-work hub for all of the Arts programs. Duties include but are not limited to: equipment and asset management, maintenance, and oversight of safe and proper use of equipment. The position also provides support to the Arts Center community - including in-class and extracurricular workshops in camerawork, and lighting for film and photography. The ideal candidate will have several years of experience with camerawork and lighting for film.

Principle administrative responsibilities include:
- Assist in the management of the Equipment Center
- Manage and instruct Assistant Technical Instructors & Student Employees
- Advisement on equipment, hardware, and software purchases for the Arts
- Asset management in the Equipment Center
- Manage loans of equipment to the community
- Respond to technical support questions
- Respond to Equipment Center questions

Principle teaching responsibilities include:
- Conducting technical and filmcraft workshops
- Guide and instruct Assistant Technical Instructors
- Creating education resources (online & print) for community use - one-sheets, guides, short instructional videos, safety protocols, etc.

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree or equivalent. Master's level degree is preferred. Required work and related experience in film production, specifically camerawork and lighting. Preferred experience in teaching film and/or post-production in an academic setting, employment at a film rental house or post-production facility, rigging and sound stage experience, and electrical and camera repair experience.

Applications are due no later than April 15, 2016. The terms of employment are competitive and include housing and educational subsidies for children. Applications will be accepted immediately and candidates will be considered until the position is filled. To be considered, all applicants must submit a cover letter and a curriculum vitae in PDF format through the NYUAD online application portal.
