INSTRUCTOR – STAGE MANAGEMENT
Arts and Humanities
NYU Abu Dhabi

The Arts and Humanities division at New York University Abu Dhabi seeks to appoint an Instructor in Stage Management starting fall 2016. This is a full-time academic support position suited for someone eager to join the team in the Arts team within the Arts and Humanities Division. The Stage Management Instructor works with the arts team to manage the rehearsal room for all production work including mainstage theater productions and capstones. He/she also mentors and advises students on stage management for all student-led and classroom projects. In addition, he/she will also supervise all theater program rehearsal inventory, perform general maintenance and upkeep for rehearsal spaces, and advocate for best practices within rehearsals and performance strategies for students, faculty, and guest artists.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to areas such as; stage management, development of best practices, writing rehearsal and production reports, attending each theater production and project and call lighting and stage cues as needed, facilitating the audition process, managing inventory, and inventory planning, providing academic support and general support as needed.

Applicants must have a BA or BFA. First-aid certification is a plus. The successful candidate must have strong production and technical skills including audio-visual, lighting boards, and contemporary theatrical equipment. Proven interpersonal, organizational, written and oral communications skills. Must demonstrate ability to exercise astute judgment, take initiative, and collaborate well with others.

Applications will be accepted immediately and candidates will be considered until the position is filled. The terms of employment are competitive and include expatriate packages. To be considered, all applicants must submit a cover letter and a curriculum vitae in PDF format through the NYUAD online application portal. Please visit http://nyuad.nyu.edu/about/careers/faculty-positions.html for instructions and information on how to apply. If you have any questions about the position, please e-mail nyuad.artsprograms.hiring@nyu.edu. Please note that due to the high volume of inquiries and applications, only candidates who have been shortlisted will be contacted.

About NYUAD:
New York University has established itself as a Global Network University, a multi-site, organically connected network encompassing key global cities and idea capitals. The network has three foundational degree-granting campuses: New York, Abu Dhabi, and Shanghai, complimented by a network of eleven research and study-away sites across five continents. Faculty and students will circulate within this global network in pursuit of common research interests and the promotion of cross-cultural and interdisciplinary solutions for problems both local and global.

Entering its sixth year, NYU Abu Dhabi has recruited a cohort of faculty who are at once distinguished in their research and teaching. Our students are drawn from around the world and surpass all traditional recruitment benchmarks, both US and global. NYU Abu Dhabi’s highly selective liberal arts enterprise is complemented by an institute for advanced research, sponsoring cutting-edge projects across the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Engineering.
