POST-DOCTORAL RESEARCHER POSITION
Research group of Jaime Napier
NYU Abu Dhabi

The lab of Jaime Napier at New York University Abu Dhabi is seeking a Postdoctoral Fellow to conduct cutting-edge research on understanding the social and psychological antecedents and consequences of inequality, broadly defined. Candidates must hold (or be close to completing) a Ph.D. in Psychology, Sociology, Political Science, or a related field. The ideal candidate will have a strong quantitative background. Experience with qualitative data, field experiments, international research, or other unique methodological skills are considered a plus.

The position is available as early as January 2016 but the start date is flexible based on the needs of the applicant. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. The terms of employment include competitive salary, housing, and other benefits.

The duration of employment is for two years with the possibility to renew. Applications will be accepted immediately. To be considered, all applicants must submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae with full publication list, statement of research interests and at least one letter of reference, all in PDF format. When submitting references you will be asked for the contact information of your reference authors, who will be directly solicited to submit their letters through our online system.
