The research group of Christina Pöpper at New York University Abu Dhabi is seeking a Postdoctoral Researcher to conduct cutting-edge research on IT-related communication security and privacy. Candidates must hold (or be close to completing) a Ph.D. in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, IT-Security or a related field. The ideal candidate will have a strong publication record and a systems-oriented security background. Experience with privacy, theoretical IT-security, (applied) cryptography, or other security-relevant methodological skills are considered a plus. Excellent communication skills in English, ability to work in multi-disciplinary teams, and scientific creativity are essential.

Collaborations within the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies in Security and Privacy (CRISSP-AD), established at NYUAD in 2011, are foreseen. The goal of CRISSP-AD is to bring together technologists and scientists to integrate technical, legal, financial, and psychological aspects in order to develop secure, reliable, and practical solutions to meet the information security and privacy challenges in today’s interconnected world. Currently CRISSP-AD has over half a dozen faculty and several researchers who are focusing on a variety of cutting edge research projects.

The position is available as early as March 2016 but the start date is flexible based on the needs of the applicant. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. The terms of employment are competitive and include salary, housing, and other benefits. The duration of employment is for two years with the possibility to renew. Applications will be accepted immediately. To be considered, applicants must submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae with full publication record, statement of research interests and at least one letter of reference, all in PDF format. Please visit our website at http://nyuad.nyu.edu/about/careers/faculty-positions.html for instructions and other information on how to apply. If you have any questions, please e-mail christina.poepper@nyu.edu.

About NYUAD:

New York University has established itself as a Global Network University, a multi-site, organically connected network encompassing key global cities and idea capitals. The network has three foundational degree-granting campuses: New York, Abu Dhabi, and Shanghai, complimented by a network of eleven research and study-away sites across five continents. Faculty and students will circulate within this global network in pursuit of common research interests and the promotion of cross-cultural and interdisciplinary solutions for problems both local and global.

Entering its sixth year, NYU Abu Dhabi has recruited a cohort of faculty who are at once distinguished in their research and teaching. Our students are drawn from around the world and surpass all traditional recruitment benchmarks, both US and global. NYU Abu Dhabi’s highly selective liberal arts enterprise is complimented by an institute for advanced research, sponsoring cutting-edge projects across the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Engineering.
