PUBLICATIONS

Books

- 1) A Union of Peoples: Europe as a Community of Principle (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2020)

Many political and legal philosophers compare the EU to a federal union and believe its basic laws should be subject to the standards of constitutional law, and thus find it lacking or incomplete. This book proposes a rival theory: that the substance of EU law is not constitutional, but international, and provides a close examination of the treaties and the precedents of the European courts to explore this concept further.

Reviewed by Massimo Fichera in the review article 'Solidarity, Heterarchy, and Political Morality' in 2 Ius Cogens (2020) 301-311, by Justin Lindeboom in 32 European Journal of International Law (2021) 1546-1557 and by J. Rendle in 58 Common Market Law Review (2021) 1615-6.

- 2) Legal Rights (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2008)

This book is a discussion of legal positivism and its account of rights. Rejecting legal positivism, the book puts forward a theory of law as practical reason, according to which rights are moral reasons with moral priority.

Reviews appeared in 121 Ethics (2011) [A. Halpin], 652-657, in 30 Law and Philosophy (2011) [R. Cruft] and in 55 American Journal of Jurisprudence (2010) 201 [M Köpcke Tinture].

- 3) Συνταγματισμός και Πολιτικές Αξίες. Οι Κανονιστικές Προϋποθέσεις του Συνταγματικού Δικαίου (Athens: Sakkoulas, 1999) pp. i-xii, 1-206.

The book, whose title can be translated as Constitutionalism and Political Values: The Normative Presuppositions of Constitutional Law, was a discussion of Greek constitutional theory (especially Saripolos, Svolos and Manesis) and a defence of a practical or moral theory of constitutional law – with reference to Dworkin and Fuller.

Edited Book

- 1) Dickson, J & Eleftheriadis, P (eds.), The Philosophical Foundations of European Union Law (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2012)

This is a collection of original essays exploring foundational issues in EU law, aiding the understanding of its nature and purpose. Features essays from philosophers, moral philosophers, and EU legal academics, offering a range of perspectives on theoretical problems at the heart of EU law
