POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

NYU Libraries support the educational goals of New York University Abu Dhabi by providing access to all forms of information to support research, study, teaching, and the general pursuit of knowledge. In order to be successful in this mission, the Library and its community of users observe a relationship of reciprocal rights and responsibilities. While most users conduct themselves in a responsible manner, in the interest of protecting the rights of all Library users, it is necessary to define what constitutes infringements on the rights of others.

The NYU Libraries Conduct Code affirms a commitment to protecting an environment conducive to intellectual pursuits. Such an environment is characterized by respect for the rights of others, respect for the Library's resources, and respect for appropriate conduct in a public forum. The Code ensures that users of NYUAD Library find themselves in an environment that will enable them to achieve their educational objectives.

The Code also acknowledges that the Library fulfills an important educational function in the University. Educational settings, unlike other public forums, require special considerations in defining violations, investigating allegations of violations, and imposing disciplinary action. This document affirms our commitment to addressing and resolving charges of misconduct in a speedy manner, while upholding the rights of due process.

NYU Libraries are committed to:

• serving and being responsive to the needs and priorities of its users
• protecting each user's right to privacy and confidentiality in all of their interactions with Library
• building collections that meet the research and instructional needs of all users
• simplifying, enhancing and expanding access to information
• preserving the collections for present and future users
• providing library spaces to accommodate study, research, and scholarly exchange keeping the physical environment of the Library clean, well-maintained, and properly functioning
Unacceptable Conduct

Users will refrain from engaging in behavior that leads to the denial of, or unreasonable interference with, the rights of others; or which disrupts the regular operations and activities of the Library. Behavior, which is considered to be in violation of the NYU Libraries Conduct Code, includes, but is not limited to:
